Description (revised)

Seller assumes all responsibility for listing this item.

You're bidding for an interesting tribal curiosity artifact from the Middle Sepik River region in Papua New Guinea. For educational and teaching purposes, I'm offering this (real, HUMAN - male) Iatmul ancestor skull. I have no idea for exact age but this skull has been overmodelled in clay, the jaw fixed into place, the surface had been motif-painted with natural pigments, the eyes given cowrie shell inserts, and real hair glued to the head and affixed for eyebrows! Most of the upper teeth are missing but for the molars; most of the bottom teeth are intact. A real rarity for you real skull collectors and natural history buffs! 6"H x 8"D x 5"W. Shipping will cost $18 and please pay with cash, a bank money order, an INTERNATIONAL postal m/o or paypal.
