My 134th budget: promises, plans and words to be forgotten

Saturday, March 30, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

People and politicians make mistakes and that's why we and they both need to listen to one another. Thinking you are right doesn't make for success.

Spring arrived this week and so did the provincial budget

Saturday, March 23, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

The geese are happy to be back and the writer of this story is not because of the 33% increase for prescriptions to people over 65 years old.

Tim's Tip of the Day

The truck you see in this picture is by far not as extreme as some but raised vehicles pose an enormous threat to other vehicles on the road. Notice that this one does not have a back bumper at all, let alone one at the same height as your car or SUV.(Click here to see full size.)

Find of the Day

Fake flood evacuees in Manitoba about to lose benefits

Last year's flood made 800 people homeless on Lake St. Martin reserve. Since then they are still in Winnipeg hotels only they number 1,300. About 500 folks from Winnipeg from the reserve claimed homelessness as they came originally from Lake St. Martin.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012

by: Joyce Neufeld
Waldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.
