Tim's Tip of the Day

Whatever the tool is, it is only usable when it is properly used and properly maintained. Machines that are not kept clean and serviced regularly break down and productivity is dramatically reduced. (Click here to see full size.)

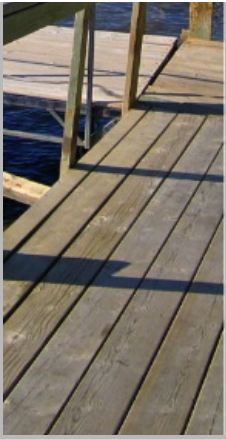

Find of the Day

Bank of Canada faces interest rate dilemma

The often wise and cautious head of the Bank of Canada Mark Carney planned to raise Canadian interest rates in September to deal with inflation in Canada's stable economy.

Economist Michael Hink is extremely critical of the bad idea in the U.S. to keep interest rates almost at 0% for two years thus discouraging Americans from saving.
