Timothy W. Shire

Buffalo Pound:

Located twenty minutes from Moose Jaw, this is an excellent park with an abundance of camp sites and great services. Poor access road.

A one night stop over in my hometown

Langbank:

It's not a place but a piece of time. The little village of the 1950s only lives in the minds of us who lived there and today we know where that place was.

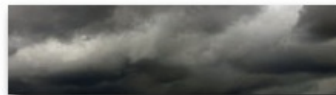

How about this weather, eh!

Friday, June 15, 2012

Timothy W. Shire

Tisdale:

"Rain interrupted by showers and periods of light rain," that's what its been like for what seems like a month. But the crop is in, the garden is up and we have mosquitoes.

Shameful

Waldeck:

Some of the damage being done to Canada both at home and abroad is so serious that it may be permanent. Such is the legacy of the 2006 -

1999 - Floor pouring, a morning look and the best corn patch in town

1998 - Fumbled focus

Tim's Tip of the Day

More than just a subculture the Harley Davidson motorcycle cult is more of a country unto itself. Its loud, motorcycles are louder than any other vehicle including railway locomotives, and seemingly unaware of the world around them. In all five states we travelled in this summer helmets are not required. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

Droughts show global warming is 'scientific fact'

NASA researcher's report simply points out that no other explanation covers the phenomena now occurring world wide. They were predicting 9 days in Washington DC above 35°C each year, this year there have been 23 days of such temperatures.

Regina:
This set of images celebrate the magic of metal work captured by Regina photographer Ken Jones.
