Tim's Tip of the Day

Just where did the idea come from that employers and government always aim to pay their people the lowest amount of money in wages they can get away with while at the same time lowering corporate taxes. What we need are lots of tax payers people who can afford to pay their taxes and have a vested interest in where those taxes are spent. The rich do not pay enough in taxes to cover their cost to society. The middle class and the working class carry the load and its time they were paid more. (Click here to see full size.)
