Tim's Tip of the Day

Take care of yourself. No matter how hectic things get make time to recharge your batteries at regular intervals. Studies have shown that those people who stop work and take a break get more done and are away more efficient with the added benefit of superior work being achieved. (Click here to see full size.)

Find of the Day

Dickens: Nightmare before Christmas

Charles Dickens' father actually served time in debtors prison and the young Dickens himself began work in a factory at age eleven. But he loved Christmas and in many ways left the legacy of his feelings about Christmas in the minds of everyone who has been touched by "A Christmas Carol" This story is by writer Justin Cartwright.
