2001 - The sat day of the first year and a first batch of my books for Christmas

2000 - Normal winter driving, productivity is the wrong thing to measure and the assembly line economics is obsolete

1999 - Ramblers beat Tigers 9 - 3

1998 - Security in Tisdale and Soon snow will be here

Tim's Tip of the Day

From the moment of birth until a person's lifetime runs out we all continue to add knowledge and skills so that we all need very much to understand that learning is an ongoing event. But here is the cool thing about the process, we all do it in our own unique way. Some by observation, some by trial and error, some by repetitive experiences. Instruction is only a small part of the act of learning. The most important component is making mistakes and learning from them. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

How to fund the awesome things in life

Each month Edward Ocampo-Gooding and nine other Ottawa high tech people contribute $100 to the "Awesome Foundation" then give the $1,000 to a project they like with no strings attached. The movement began in 2009 in Boston and has spread to 50 other places worldwide all funding "awesome" projects.
