Tim's Tip of the Day

Things change and it sometimes takes a while to notice the glass roof that used to be on these three posts has been gone for close to two years. But the now useless poles remain with no apparent use. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

An Obituary for the Letter E

Wired Magazine has pointed out that the letter "e" which one of the most popular letters on our keyboards is about to disappear. As with so many things the Internet has a powerful influence and in this case more and more companies are removing the "e" from names ending "er". In language and common usage things sometimes change and though this is meant to be humorous it does explain why we some things that we do.
