The Greenwater report

Wednesday
January 26, 2011
by: Gerald Crawford
Saskatoon: The Crawfords will soon be off on a bus tour but before they get away Gerald tells about a business venture by Joan Wagner of Perigord and shares some of his wisdom.

Cubed cars

Monday
January 10, 2011
by: Timothy W. Shire
Valparaiso: Once a car or truck's life on the road is over it most often is taken into a wrecking yard for parts to be salvaged and when that process is over the remains are recycled.

Studying Chinese

Friday
January 7, 2011
by: Mario deSantis
Abbotsford, British Columbia: Mario wrote for Ensign from its very beginnings back in 1998 and it is great to have a story about his latest adventure. As a retired person, what would it be like to learn Chinese? Mario tells us about it and gives us some resources he is using.

The Greenwater report

Thursday
January 6, 2011
by: Gerald Crawford
Saskatoon: Gerald brings us up to date on their festive season with their family and friends. Many people are worried about immigration and Gerald puts in his two cents worth.

Two evergreens less

Wednesday
January 5, 2011
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale: The two sun thieves in our yard have been dealt a fatal blow and come spring there is a better change of a lawn growing on our front yard.
