Thursday, January 26, 2012
by: Darlene McCullough
Tisdale:

Competitions and community projects are all part of the monthly Parkland Photography meetings. This month the theme shoot was "break the rules."

Arctic Air

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

One of the best things to show up on our television screens in 2012. This new show tells the story of a struggling airline in Yellowknife with an aggressive well educated aboriginal person taking a leadership role.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joe Hueglin
Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joyce Neufeld
Walldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale:

Sorry about being late this year. We were in Winnipeg last week and though I had the equipment with me the software and a mysterious server issue stopped me cold. So here is my peek into the crystal ball for this year.

Merry Christmas

Wednesday, December 21, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale:

May each of you have a most happy Christmas.

Kiss the millions goodbye

Wednesday, December 21, 2011

by: Henry Neufeld Waldeck:

The demise of the Canadian Wheat Board looks to be history. But what about the money?

Tim's Tip of the Day

We have routinely been using Macintosh computers to talk with one another in our family since 2004 using Apple's iChat software. But with the updated iPhone and iPad2 we get even better results with Apple's FaceTime. WiFi is needed for the iPhone or iPad2. (Click here to see full size.)

Tisdale: We live in a world of making, we fabricate our reality from what we interpret our environment to be. Since we make up our world it is that we project what it shall be.

Parkland Photography Club November meeting

Friday, November 25, 2011
by: November

Tisdale: The Parkland Photography Club continues to provide experience and a shared photographic adventure for its members. This month's images are really a sign of the clubs growth.

by: Edwin Wallace

Swift Current: After having been forced out of his position as campaign strategist in 2007 Dale Schmeichel headed up the debacle of an NDP which ended in defeat yesterday. Edwin Wallace addresses Mr. Schmeichel to bid good riddance.

A positive as we approach Remembrance Day

Wednesday, November 9, 2011

by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario: The use of "depleted uranium" munitions is a serious world problem but it has been ignored and denied by the Canadian Government. Yesterday they agreed to look into the problem with Canadian veterans.

CWB to be or not to be

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale: Since Stephen Harper longs to be an American or at least be loved by Americans he has pursued the destruction of the Canadian Wheat Board. Here are some of the continuing arguments both for abolition and preservation.

Crushing the monopoly

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Stu Innes
Regina: Not everyone want to see the Wheat Board go away. Stu Innes wants to market his product when and where he likes.

Whose interests are being served by the demise of the Canadian Wheat Board?

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Herb Schulz

Winnipeg: We maybe need to consider who is gaining rather than who is losing on the destruction of the CWB.
