Eight ender

Thursday, February 9, 2012
by: Lorraine Wisser

Tisdale:

Better than a grand slam in baseball, less common than a hole in one in golf, scoring eight with only eight rocks is the ultimate achievement in curling. This past weekend Lorraine Wisser and her team did the perfect end.

Ken Oskrip; December 15, 1928 to February 4, 2012

Thursday, February 9, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire

Tisdale:

For decades downtown Tisdale was where you would find the man who operated the bus depot and owned the "coffee shop". He passed away last week at age 83.

screens in 2012. This new show tells the story of a struggling airline in Yellowknife with an aggressive well educated aboriginal person taking a leadership role.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012 by: Joe Hueglin Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012 by: Joyce Neufeld Walldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.

New year predictions for 2012

Wednesday, January 4, 2012 by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale:

Sorry about being late this year. We were in Winnipeg last week and though I had the equipment with me the software and a mysterious server issue stopped me cold. So here is my peek into the crystal ball for this year.

Merry Christmas

Wednesday, December 21, 2011 by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale:

May each of you have a most happy Christmas.

Kiss the millions goodbye

Wednesday, December 21, 2011 by: Henry Neufeld Waldeck:

The demise of the Canadian Wheat Board looks to be history. But what about the money?

Tim's Tip of the Day

It has been 81 years since the Ford Motor Company made a new Model "A" yet almost every person can recognize one and they are still amazingly common. Cropper Motors have a beauty and Canadian Tire in Regina have one on display. Most common are models from the mid 20s. (Click here to see full size.)

Curing Diabetes: How Type 2 became an accepted lifestyle

This story by John Manuel Andriote in the Atlantic today is pretty shocking. Since type 2 diabetes is one of biggest many makers for medical practitioners and the pharmaceutical industry there is no incentive to cure the condition and a lot of profit in just treating the condition. It appears as though the condition is part and parcel of today's environment and its victims grow in number every single day.

by: Mario deSantis

Abbotsford, British Columbia: Using a Minolta SRT101 camera and black and white film Mr. deSantis put together this photo essay to make a point about planned development in the Abbotsford area.

Hope

Friday, November 30, 2011
by: Timothy W. Shire

Tisdale: We live in a world of making, we fabricate our reality from what we interpret our environment to be. Since we make up our world it is that we project what it shall be.

Parkland Photography Club November meeting

Friday, November 25, 2011
by: November

Tisdale: The Parkland Photography Club continues to provide experience and a shared photographic adventure for its members. This month's images are really a sign of the clubs growth.

Ready to blow

Friday, November 25, 2011

Carrot River: Once a famboy always a famboy. With winter here Kevin and his wife Sandra are ready with a John Deere to meet this year's challenge of snow.

No one will forget

Friday, November 11, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale: Only a handful of world war two veterans remain but this year Canada's observance of Remembrance Day was bigger than ever. Though we still have a thousand troops in theatre Canada is now officially at peace.

It was not all Wall

Tuesday, November 8, 2011
by: Edwin Wallace

Swift Current: After having been forced out of his position as campaign strategist in 2007 Dale Schmeichel headed up the debacle of an NDP which ended in defeat yesterday. Edwin Wallace addresses Mr. Schmeichel to bid good riddance.

A positive as we approach Remembrance Day

Wednesday, November 9, 2011
by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario: The use of "depleted uranium" munitions is a serious world problem but it has been ignored and denied by the Canadian Government. Yesterday they agreed to look into the problem with Canadian veterans.

CWB to be or not to be

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale: Since Stephen Harper longs to be an American or at least be loved by Americans he has pursued the destruction of the Canadian Wheat Board. Here are some of the continuing arguments both for abolition and preservation.
