by: Lorraine Wisser
Tisdale:

Better than a grand slam in baseball, less common than a hole in one in golf, scoring eight with only eight rocks is the ultimate achievement in curling. This past weekend Lorraine Wisser and her team did the perfect end.

Ken Oskrip; December 15, 1928 to February 4, 2012

Thursday, February 9, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

For decades downtown Tisdale was where you would find the man who operated the bus depot and owned the "coffee shop". He passed away last week at age 83.

Arctic Air

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

One of the best things to show up on our television screens in 2012. This new show tells the story of a struggling airline in Yellowknife with an aggressive well educated aboriginal person taking a leadership role.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joe Hueglin
Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joyce Neufeld
Walldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.

New year predictions for 2012

Wednesday, January 4, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

Sorry about being late this year. We were in Winnipeg last week and though I had the equipment with me the software and a mysterious server issue stopped me cold. So here is my peek into the crystal ball for this year.

American Manufacturing Could Be in Bigger Trouble Than We All Thought

In the past decade even though American skill workers are paid many times over what their counterparts in the rest of the world are paid. American workers are still considered to amazing productive. The real truth is that productivity is accomplished by outsourcing work and hiring temporary workers.

Hope

Friday, November 30, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire

Tisdale: We live in a world of making, we fabricate our reality from what we interpret our environment to be. Since we make up our world it is that we project what it shall be.

Parkland Photography Club November meeting

Friday, November 25, 2011

by: November

Tisdale: The Parkland Photography Club continues to provide experience and a shared photographic adventure for its members. This month's images are really a sign of the club's growth.

Ready to blow

Friday, November 25, 2011

by: Kevin McIntyre

Carrot River: Once a farmboy always a farmboy. With winter here Kevin and his wife Sandra are ready with a John Deere to meet this year's challenge of snow.

No one will forget

Friday, November 11, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale: Only a handful of world war two veterans remain but this year Canada's observance of Remembrance Day was bigger than ever. Though we still have a thousand troops in theatre Canada is now officially at peace.

It was not all Wall

Tuesday, November 8, 2011

by: Edwin Wallace

Swift Current: After having been forced out of his position as campaign strategist in 2007 Dale Schmeichel headed up the debacle of an NDP which ended in defeat yesterday. Edwin Wallace addresses Mr. Schmeichel to bid good riddance.

A positive as we approach Remembrance Day

Wednesday, November 9, 2011

by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario: The use of "depleted uranium" munitions is a serious world problem but it has been ignored and denied by the Canadian Government. Yesterday they agreed to look into the problem with Canadian veterans.

CWB to be or not to be

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale: Since Stephen Harper longs to be an American or at least be loved by Americans he has pursued the destruction of the Canadian Wheat Board. Here are some of the continuing arguments both for abolition and preservation.

Crushing the monopoly

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Stu Innes Regina: Not everyone want to see the Wheat Board go away. Stu Innes wants to market his product when and where he likes.

Whose interests are being served by the demise of the Canadian Wheat Board?

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Herb Schulz

Winnipeg: We maybe need to consider who is gaining rather than who is losing on the destruction of the CWB.

Canadian Wheat Board: 2011's Attempted Potash Sell Out

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Brian Marlatt

White rock, British columbia: What about the provincial government, should they be considered accountable for Harper's agenda?
