Arctic Air

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale:

One of the best things to show up on our television screens in 2012. This new show tells the story of a struggling airline in Yellowknife with an aggressive well educated aboriginal person taking a leadership role.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joe Hueglin
Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012
by: Joyce Neufeld
Walldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.

Tim's Tip of the Day

Be it the changes in the skyline or pot holes in the street one of the most challenging aspects of life is dealing with change. Nothing stays the same, we grow older, we are confronted with technological and social innovations on a daily basis. There is no getting used to it, each of us has to learn to continuously adapt. Find of the Day

Soldiers and pilot recognized for valour for actions in Afghanistan

Thursday morning, January 26, 2012 in Ottawa a Captain William Todd Fielding and six soldiers were recognized for their heroism in combat in Afghanistan. Captain Fielding landed a burning Chinook helicopter without injury to the soldiers on board.

Tisdale: We live in a world of making, we fabricate our reality from what we interpret our environment to be. Since we make up our world it is that we project what it shall be.

Parkland Photography Club November meeting

Friday, November 25, 2011

by: November

Tisdale: The Parkland Photography Club continues to provide experience and a shared photographic adventure for its members. This month's images are really a sign of the clubs growth.

Ready to blow

Friday, November 25, 2011

by: Kevin McIntyre

Carrot River: Once a farmboy always a farmboy. With winter here Kevin and his wife Sandra are ready with a John Deere to meet this year's challenge of snow.

No one will forget

Friday, November 11, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale: Only a handful of world war two veterans remain but this year Canada's observance of Remembrance Day was bigger than ever. Though we still have a thousand troops in theatre Canada is now officially at peace.

It was not all Wall

Tuesday, November 8, 2011

by: Edwin Wallace

Swift Current: After having been forced out of his position as campaign strategist in 2007 Dale Schmeichel headed up the debacle of an NDP which ended in defeat yesterday. Edwin Wallace addresses Mr. Schmeichel to bid good riddance.

A positive as we approach Remembrance Day

Wednesday, November 9, 2011

by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario: The use of "depleted uranium" munitions is a serious world problem but it has been ignored and denied by the Canadian Government. Yesterday they agreed to look into the problem with Canadian veterans.

CWB to be or not to be

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Timothy W. Shire Tisdale: Since Stephen Harper longs to be an American or at least be loved by Americans he has pursued the destruction of the Canadian Wheat Board. Here are some of the continuing arguments both for abolition and preservation.

Crushing the monopoly

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Stu Innes Regina: Not everyone want to see the Wheat Board go away. Stu Innes wants to market his product when and where he likes.

Whose interests are being served by the demise of the Canadian Wheat Board?

Wednesday, November 2, 2011

by: Herb Schulz

Winnipeg: We maybe need to consider who is gaining rather than who is losing on the destruction of the CWB.
