Tim's Tip of the Day

This past week there was some fairly normal winter weather in Southern and Central Saskatchewan. Tuesday saw three people die in vehicle mishaps near Estevan, Belle Plain and the third in another part of the province. All three where killed by semi trailer pulling trucks. All unable to stop because of driving in storm conditions exceeding their ability to be controlled. In bad weather they are the killing enemy just don't go because there is no defence. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

Dangerous air pollution forces Beijing residents indoors

At 500 PM2.5 particulates its time to stay inside but Beijing has had recent readings of up to and over 800. Coal fires, home heating and concentration of people make the situation in China's capital unbreathable. Other Chinese cities are also in trouble and during winter there is no hope in sight.
