Tim's Tip of the Day

The menu at Tim Horton's is not a amen at all but a guide as their clerks turn all orders into a la carte orders. A sandwich soup combo and a soup donut combo added up to $22 instead of the advertised $12.78 resulting in ten minutes of haggling and the order came without the donut. Order what's on the menu and pay not a penny more no matter how they try to get you to deviate so they can up the price. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

Pete Seeger dead: folk singer and activist dies at 94

This world is a better place because of the American folk singer Pete Seeger who for 70 spread the message of hope and the determination to improve society. His influence was not confined to America for his music and the infectious love of sing was celebrated throughout the English speaking world. If I had a hammer, Where have all the flowers gone, We shall overcome and This land is my land are only a few of the singable songs of this great man.
