Tim's Tip of the Day

One of the responsibilities of living in a democracy is keeping yourself informed. You need not be an expert, but you can not make informed choices, or decisions, without being aware of what is happening. Relying on some leader to tell you what things should be like leads to chaos, as Mr. Harper is demonstrating. Democracy is up to you. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

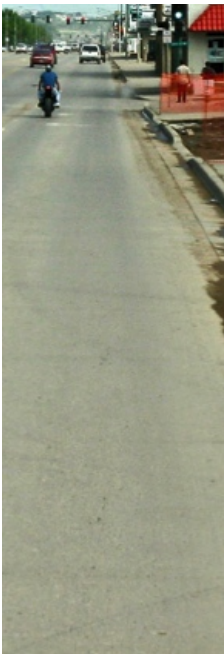

Three times for Towner area: High water levels in areas downstream from Minot

First flooding caused by lower water levels behind dams prior to run off, the run-off now rain. The Souris River in North Dakota is an ongoing problem without a reasonable solution in sight. Farmers blamed Saskatchewan water authorities and no real plan to handle issue.

About a month late but here are Ken Jones' annual set of pictures of the little spring miracle we incorrectly call the crocus.
