Eight ender

Thursday, February 9, 2012
by: Lorraine Wisser
Tisdale:

Better than a grand slam in baseball, less common then a hole in one in golf, scoring eight with only eight rocks is the ultimate achievement in curling. This past weekend Lorraine Wisser and her team did the perfect end.

Tim's Tip of the Day

One of the good things about fall, winter and early spring in Canada is the absence of mosquitoes. Last summer was an excellent year but this early spring of 2012 might be another whack and scratch time. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

Arizona bill could require reason for birth control

In Arizona and perhaps some other US states it may well be for a woman to have contraceptives covered by her medical plan she will have to give an approved reason for the prescription. So much for the land of the free and the home of the brave.

by: Timothy W. Shire

Tisdale:

One of the best things to show up on our television screens in 2012. This new show tells the story of a struggling airline in Yellowknife with an aggressive well educated aboriginal person taking a leadership role.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012

by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012

by: Joyce Neufeld

Waldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.
