Eight ender

Thursday, February 9, 2012
by: Lorraine Wisser
Tisdale:

Better than a grand slam in baseball, less common then a hole in one in golf, scoring eight with only eight rocks is the ultimate achievement in curling. This past weekend Lorraine Wisser and her team did the perfect end.

Tim's Tip of the Day

First day of spring this is the flag at the Tisdale town office. It was sorted out later that day but at the intersection of highways #3 and #35 less than half of the Canadian and American flags are flying. There is no point in flying a flag if it is going to be treated with such disrespect. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

Obama urges 'soul-searching' after Florida teen's death

This amazing story illustrates the remarkable racist situation in the United States of America. KKK and lynchings now replaced with gun welding vigilants who simply shot and killed a 17 year old wearing a hoody and talking on a cell phone.

Arctic Air

Thursday, January 19, 2012

by: Timothy W. Shire

Tisdale:

One of the best things to show up on our television screens in 2012. This new show tells the story of a struggling airline in Yellowknife with an aggressive well educated aboriginal person taking a leadership role.

Canada, not a "giant national park" for U.S. but a "giant resource base"

Thursday, January 19, 2012

by: Joe Hueglin

Niagara Falls, Ontario

The Prime Minister is not amused with the U.S. government's rejection of the Keystone Pipeline but at the same time has presided over the relentless take overs of Canadian industry and resources.

Scrapping the Canadian Wheat Board is a crime

Thursday, January 19, 2012

by: Joyce Neufeld

Waldeck

The decision by parliament to close down the monopoly by the Canadian Wheat Board was against the law. Odd that this was done by a government so brash about being hard on crime.
