Tim's Tip of the Day

There is no need for us all to be overly polite. Enough already with the "seasons Greetings" and "happy holidays". The consumer feeding frenzy began in earnest today as shoppers buy "Christmas Presents". (Click here to see full size.)

Find of the Day

Written proof Harper doesn't care about aboriginal education

Liberal MP Carolyn Bennett in a Huffington Post story explains that the emails from the prime minister's office not only shed light on the Duffy story but clearly indicate that the Prime Minister considers aboriginal people as "adversaries" and though he talks big on doing something about impoverished reserve schools he does not intend to increase funding so that those schools have the same amount to spend as provincially funded schools.
