Tim's Tip of the Day

This story of the fifteen year old British Columbia girl who took her own life is just plain tragic. But alas dear friends there is a deep and important lesson to be learned from this sad story and we each need to consider how it affects our lives. Things like FaceBook and Twitter are not therapy, it may seem that telling your friends and acquaintances how you are feeling is the thing to do but it is not enough. If you need counselling, do something about it. Go to a counsellor, a psychologist, or your clergyman, and get help. Depression is a killer and so are a number of other conditions that can sneak up on a person and just whining about it is not going to make it go away. If you are constantly thinking about drugs and alcohol, if you discover that you feel very very sad when there is no real reason to feel that way you need help. We are not alone in this life, we share our lives with each other, but staying alive sometimes means that you need professional help, so if you do, get the help you need. Find of the Day

What the NDP are scared of: Justin Trudeau

Young and candid Justin Trudeau is going after Canada's youth and has the star quality to pull it off. The Liberal leadership race will be decided by the general public not just members of the Liberal party. Young Trudeau is alining at a populist wide spectrum of Canadian voters. He is ignoring traditional Canadian politics.

Tisdale:

Schools opened on Tuesday and Tisdale and area's retired teachers observed the event with their annual breakfast.

Wall Drug

Friday, August 31, 2012

Timothy W. Shire
Wall, South Dakota:

On vacation you are bound to encounter many so-called "attractions" that are essential a ripe off. Wall Drug is a tourist trap but, one well worth visiting.

A one night stop over in my hometown

Monday, July 9, 2012

Timothy W. Shire
Langbank:

It's not a place but a piece of time. The little village of the 1950s only lives in the minds of us who lived there and today we know where that place was.

How about this weather, eh!

Friday, June 15, 2012

Timothy W. Shire
Tisdale:

"Rain interrupted by showers and periods of light rain," that's what its been like for what seems like a month. But the crop is in, the garden is up and we have mosquitoes.

Shameful

Friday, June 15, 2012

Joyce Neufeld
Waldeck:

Some of the damage being done to Canada both at home and abroad is so serious that it may be permanent. Such is the legacy of the 2006 - 2015 Conservative government.
