Tim's Tip of the Day

Each year my wife buys six little tomato plants at the greenhouse and each year we have the most delicious tomatoes, more than we can eat. They require little tending and they really are rewarding. \(Click here to see full size.\)

Find of the Day

A touch of socialism might tame America's killer psyche

Though the murder rate in the United States is declining the number of mass killings is dramatically increasing to something like 3 to 4 big ones a year. This is not the case in other countries but most other countries have better unemployment programmes and more social support for troubled people.
